David Sadoo

Executive Secretary,
International Disaster
Response, United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), The General Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church.

Mr. Sadoo has worked with UMCOR since 2001, helping the organization implement its international responses. He works with UMCOR's international partners in coordinating recovery efforts to disasters small and large. In 2005 he spent three months in Sri Lanka setting up UMCOR's long-term tsunami response there. "By supporting UMCOR United Methodists make a real difference in helping to heal the hurts of humanity around the world," says Mr. Sadoo.

Mr. Sadoo has a BA in International affairs from George Washington University, Washington, DC, and is pursuing his MA at The New School in New York, NY.

"Through my time here, I have learned of the importance and pride that United Methodists have in UMCOR," reflects Mr. Sadoo. "I strive to live up to those high expectations in my work."
