Chairman of the Board of Mosinee Paper Corporation
Wausau Paper Corporate Office

Dear Mr. Orr:

I am writing to you as a consumer and as a member of United Methodist Women, a one-million-member organization of The United Methodist Church. For many years, the members and leadership of our organization have dedicated their efforts to achieve a positive change, through advocacy and action, for a chlorine-free environment. I am asking you to offer PCF (Processed Chlorine Free) certified papers that carry the Chlorine Free Products Association's PCF Mark.

In The United Methodist Church, we believe that "all creation is the Lord's and we are responsible for the ways in which we use and abuse it. Water, air, soil, minerals, energy, plants, animal life and ...Furthermore we recognize the responsibility of the church toward lifestyle and systemic changes in society that will promote a more ecologically just world and a better quality of life for all creation." (Para. 160, The Natural World, Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, 2005-2008)

As the leader in the paper production market, you are a trusted steward and have a duty that requires you to press for positive change each day. A good steward needs an eye for sustainability, and an understanding of the impact that the company has on natural resources such as water, air, energy, recycling, toxic releases of chlorine chemistry, human and animal health, greenhouse gas emissions, and on social and economic accountability.

We are asking Wausau to support our efforts by offering PCF (Processed Chlorine Free) certified papers that carry the Chlorine Free Products Association's PCF Mark. This trusted identifying mark enables our membership and the market to easily recognize all sustainably-produced products. Will Wausau help us create a sustainable future for our children?

Sincerely,
